Understand Issues of Medical Negligence

Opening of the seminar by Continuing Legal Education & Member Improvement Sub-committee Co-Chairperson – Ms Sharon Palani.

This seminar is divided into 4 sessions:-

1. An Overview by Ms Sharon Palani
2. Session on Doctors-Puan Maidzua Mohammed
3. Session on Private Hospitals-Mr Felix Raj

Brief outline:-

The critical issues facing private hospital today concerns the common law principles of vicarious liability and breach of non-delegable duty of care despite the consultant doctors being engaged as independent contractors.

4. Session on Government Doctors & Hospitals-
Mr Ramakrishna Tharini

Brief outline:-

Clinical negligence claims involving the Government, whilst substantively similar to claims against private entities, does involve significant procedural differences. This session aims to explore these differences, which include matters such as limitation, naming of parties and expert evidence.
