A good pleaded case, is it magical or is it a skill. If it is a skill, then the question is how to acquire this skill.

Outline of topic:

In a recent decision, Mary Lim JCA (as Her Ladyship then was) in the case of Joseph Paulus Lantip v Tnio Chee Chang and another appeal [2020] 5 MLJ 708 at 719 (paragraph 28), on the importance of pleadings said as follows:

The role played by pleadings cannot be overstated. It is a fundamental principle of fair play which extends to the court, that all parties are bound by their pleadings. It would be most damaging to our administration and system of justice if parties are allowed to plead a certain complaint, lead evidence on another and the court, decides on something entirely different.

The Organiser reserves its rights and discretion to amend any rules and regulations in respect of the event. Fees paid is non-refundable, however a replacement is permissible provided the Selangor Bar is notified of the new participant at least 48 hours prior to the commencement of the event. The Certificate of Attendance shall only be given to the Pupils in Chamber under the Selangor Bar upon completion of the event.

That the Court of Appeal has to remind us, once again, on the importance of pleadings, goes to show that something may be amiss. Let us gather at this webinar to uncover the issue as to whether a good pleaded case is just magical or is it an acquired skill? If it is a skill, then let us see if this skill can be acquired?

Join us at this webinar to find out.
