

Vasuvi D/o M. Paramanathan
(9th February 1968 – 10th February 2012)

Ms. Vasuvi d/o M. Paramanathan was born in Petaling Jaya on 9/2/1968. She received her early primary education in SJS Petaling Jaya and her secondary school education in Taman Petaling Secondary School, Petaling Jaya. Upon completion of her SPM, she furthered her studies at Stamford College, Petaling Jaya where she did her pre-university studies. Thereafter she enrolled in HELP College for her LLB, twinning programme. She completed 2 years of LLB studies at HELP College and continued her final year at the University of Glamorgan, Wales in 1995. Upon graduating from Glamorgan University, she returned to Malaysia and continued her studies for the CLP at Brickfields College and successfully completed it in 1997.

She did her pupillage with M/s Rao and Associates at Kuala Lumpur and was called to the Bar.

Her legal career began as a partner in M/s Rao and Associates where she practiced. Later she started freelancing and practiced law until her demise.

She was quite a popular figure among the legal fraternity. She was also an active member of the Selangor Bar Committee. Her active lifestyle came to an abrupt end when she suffered from tuberculosis in late 2011 which left her partially exhausted. She was not married and lived with her mother and brother.

Ms. Vasuvi's untimely demise is indeed very sad but we take solace in knowing that she led a cheerful, happy and enjoyable life during the short duration in this world. Her kindness and attitude to help the needy at all times has earned a permanent place in the hearts of his friends and loved ones.

Her physical absence will not be erased from everyone's mind. Vasuvi will always live in the hearts and minds of her family and friends.

MAY HER SOUL REST IN PEACE...
