(Demised – 13th September 2010)

Mr. Ayavoo A/L Doraisamy who hailed from Klang, Selangor was a teacher in Sek. Men. Dato Hamzah, Port Klang. After his retirement he pursued law at ATC College and studied as an external student at University of London. He passed the approved examinations, for Degree in Bachelor of Laws on 1st August 2000. He was called to the Bar on 10th Feb 2006 and practiced his law at Messrs J.R. Samuel in Klang.

Mr Ayavoo was very well known for his kindness, generosity, ever-ready willingness to help, either in legal or in personal matters. He was also a member of SVP homes (Saint Vincent Paul) where they helped the poor and the homeless.

To our sadness, Mr. Ayavoo passed away on 13th Sept 2010 after battling against stomach cancer at Tengku Ampuan Rahimah Hospital in Klang for two months. He leaves behind his wife, Madam Thanaletchumi, his one and only son Parthiven and his only precious grandson Yasitharan.

May his soul rest in peace.
