Ho Ai Ting is a partner in the Real Estate and Corporate Litigation practice of Lee Hishammuddin Allen & Gledhill. Ai Ting read law at the University of Leeds and later was admitted as a barrister at law at Lincoln's Inn, London. She was admitted as an advocate and solicitor of the High Court of Malaya in 2011.

Ai Ting has extensive experience in complex real estate disputes and compulsory land acquisitions. She regularly advises major developers on disputes involving homebuyers and town and country planning. Ai Ting also handles landlord-tenant disputes which include recovery of rental arrears and possession of the properties.

Outline of topic

- 1) COVID-19 Act: impact on real estate industry
- 2) Amitabha Guha: retrospectivity of the Land Acquisition (Amendment) Act 2016
- 3) Ang Ming Lee: a look ahead
- 4) PJD Regency: putting the brakes on booking fee?

Aaron Mah Zhee Haang is an associate in the Dispute Resolution practice of Lee Hishammuddin Allen & Gledhill, working closely with Ai Ting. His experience in real estate disputes includes defending homebuyers' claims under the Housing Development (Control and Licensing) Act 1966 and challenging compulsory land acquisition through judicial review proceedings. He was dually admitted as an Advocate and Solicitor in the High Courts of Malaya in 2020 and in East Malaysia (Sabah) in 2018.
