Understanding Islamic Finance

- The objective of the Seminar is to provide an insight into the core operations of Islamic Finance which would be beneficial to legal practitioners, in-house counsels, and anyone with keen interest to understand how Islamic Finance works.
- In the Seminar, the real nature of Islamic Finance will be discussed and how it differs from conventional banking practices will be explained. This will lay the foundation for a proper understanding of Islamic Finance as it is carried out in everyday banking practice.
- The Seminar will also highlight the different applications of Islamic Debt and Equity financing principles. The focal point will be a discussion on the various Islamic financing products commonly applied in everyday transactions such as Bai' Inah, Bai Al-Dayn, Murabahah, Tawarruq, Ijarah, Wakalah, Musyarakah and Mudharabah.
- The underlying principles of each of these products will be explored and how they are used to meet the various financing needs of clients will be explained. The documents employed in these transactions, the functions of and necessity for each of the documents used and the type of collateral suited for it will be explained.
- The Seminar will also discuss up and coming developments in the industry particularly in the development of Social Finance.
